

Healthcare Services & Providers

Healthcare has become one of the largest industries in the U.S. as hospitals, nursing homes, doctors, service providers and agencies scramble to provide high quality care in the midst of a rapidly changing industry. From internal challenges to external threats, healthcare services and providers are vulnerable in many different areas—all of which require expert legal counsel that is knowledgeable about the intricacies of today's complex healthcare environment.

The Healthcare Services and Providers legal team at Schuyler, Roche & Crisham features seasoned attorneys with extensive backgrounds and experience in the healthcare industry. Regardless of the size or scope of your organization, our attorneys understand the challenges you face, and are skilled in providing the legal counsel and advocacy you need to mitigate internal and external risks.

At Schuyler, Roche & Crisham, our Healthcare Services and Providers group capabilities cover an unusually broad range of practice areas including professional liability, labor and employment, real estate, IP protection, corporate taxation and more. As one of Chicago's leading law firms, we provide end-to-end legal services to organizations across the healthcare industry—in the region and around the nation.
