

Local Government/Municipalities

At Schuyler, Roche & Crisham, we have built our reputation on our ability to provide exceptional legal counsel and representation for clients in both the private and public sectors. As one of Chicago's most respected law firms, we frequently provide legal services to local governments and agencies in Illinois.

Schuyler, Roche & Crisham attorneys have served as general counsel and primary outside counsel to a variety of government entities and municipalities including Chicago-area transit agencies, park districts, police and fire departments. Our counsel to government entities is multi-disciplinary in nature, and covers labor and employment, civil litigation, insurance and other practice areas.
