

Wealth Planning & Protection

Schuyler, Roche & Crisham's Wealth Planning & Protection practice group provides representation across an array of legal issues related to estate management, asset protection, trusts, wills and tax structuring.

We help clients increase the value and durability of investments, and develop strategies designed to reduce tax liability. Our experienced attorneys and comprehensive services enable individuals and families to establish financial security and protect their most important assets.

Practice areas in the Wealth Planning & Protection group include:

- Estate Planning
- Individual Taxation
- Probate & Estate Litigation

At Schuyler, Roche & Crisham, we provide sound counsel to prevent prolonged probate court cases. However, when trial is unavoidable, our seasoned litigators aggressively fight for your interests and rights in the courtroom.

With decades of experience and a founder who paved the way for excellence in Wealth Planning & Protection, Schuyler, Roche & Crisham has the experience and passion to help you build a stable financial future.
